Welcome to the Kāpiti Coast Art Trail 2026

Discover art.
Meet the makers.
Stay a while.

Enjoy a longer look at this year's Kāpiti Coast Art Trail.

It is my pleasure to welcome you to one of Aotearoa New Zealand's most inspiring creative journeys. This year, the Kāpiti Coast Art Trail returns over two weekends: Labour Weekend and the first weekend of November.

From Paekākāriki to Ōtaki, more than 140 artists will open their studios, galleries, and creative spaces, offering a rare opportunity to experience art at its source. On behalf of everyone involved, I warmly invite you to meet the makers, glimpse their creative process, and hear the stories behind their work.

Established in 2001, the Kāpiti Coast Art Trail has grown into one of the country's largest open studio events and remains the district's flagship arts celebration.

Whether you're an avid collector, a lover of local art, or a visitor seeking an inspiring weekend away, the Art Trail offers discoveries at every turn. Wander through coastal villages, encounter emerging and established artists, and uncover treasures in remarkable settings.

More than just an arts event, the Art Trail offers a chance to experience Kāpiti through the eyes of its artists – discovering exceptional work, welcoming studios, and the character that makes this place so special. If you're visiting from out of town, we invite you to stay a few nights, dine and shop locally, and explore more of our beautiful district.

Bring a friend. Make a weekend of it. Follow your curiosity. Whether you're a longtime Art Trail devotee or visiting for the first time, 2026 is the perfect year to experience the Kāpiti Coast Art Trail – and enjoy a longer look.

Janet Holborow
Mayor of Kāpiti Coast District Council

Plan your Art Trail

With more than 140 artists on the Art Trail, a little planning can help you get the most from the experience.

Start with the Guide
Browse artist profiles and locations to identify the studios and exhibitions you'd like to visit. Artists and exhibition spaces are grouped by area, with maps showing their locations. The number beside each listing matches the number on the map.

Use the index
Looking for a particular artist or studio? The index at the back of the Guide lists artists alphabetically, with their page and listing numbers.

Check opening days
Not all artists are open on Labour Monday. Check the icons in each listing before you visit.

Take a longer look
With two weekends to explore, you can slow down, revisit favourite studios, discover new artists, stay for a weekend (or two), and spend more time experiencing the creativity of the Kāpiti Coast.

On the Art Trail

- The Artists' Studios are open from 10am-4pm each day of the Art Trail.
- Check for the M icon to identify artists open on Monday of the Labour Weekend.
- An Art Trail flag will be outside each location, so you know you are at the right address.
- No flag? Please do not go in; this means the artist is unavailable.
- Directional signs will also aid wayfinding for those 'off the beaten track' studios.

- Take care of yourself and the artist's property.
- Respect the artists and their work.
- Ask permission before you take photos or video.
- Supervise your children.
- Ask permission before you bring pets (ie. dogs) onto the property.

Other ways to Art Trail

There are many ways to visit the array of creative spaces and charming coastal gardens on the Art Trail. By car is the usual way but this year why not create your own walking Art Trail or cycle your Art Trail.

Stay Awhile.
Make a weekend of it.

The Kāpiti Coast Art Trail is best enjoyed at an unhurried pace. Stay the night, discover local flavours, and explore the coast between studios.

Stay a little longer

There are hundreds of reasons not to rush home.

Wake to the sound of waves, unwind in a boutique hideaway or cosy cabin, and give yourself time to discover more of the coast. Whether you're travelling as a couple, with friends or planning a creative weekend away, staying overnight means you can experience more than the Art Trail.

Eat, drink and linger

Between studios, make time for long lunches, great coffee and local flavours.

The Kāpiti Coast is home to beachside cafés, award-winning restaurants, artisan producers, breweries, wineries and plenty of places to pause. Build your own trail of delicious discoveries while you explore.
